We'll admit it – we love a beautiful yoga studio. Yes, a great instructor is vital. Yes, you can have a wonderful class in a not so incredible space. But, when the two meet, an amazing space with fabulous instructors, we get excited. As a yogi, traveling means more than seeing somewhere new, it means exploring new yoga studios. And while there are thousands of great yoga studios in the world, these thirty are some of our favorites. So plan a trip and go check these amazing spaces out! Or, if you're lucky enough to live in one of these places, go give your local studio some love!
